THANK YOU!

These tours would not be possible without the collaboration and support of several organizations.

Funding for the Discover the Schenectady Stockade, audio tour is made possible by a grant from the Schenectady County Legislature's County Initiative Program and resources from the Stockade Association. Content support is provided by the Schenectady County Historical Society and the Colonial Schenectady Project. Technical support is provided by Dutch World Heritage Tours.

The audio tours How Dutch Is New York? - The Schenectady Stockade Tour and How Dutch Is New York? - The Mohawk Valley Tour are supported as part of the Dutch Culture USA program by the Consulate General of the Netherlands in New York, by the Society of Daughters of Holland Dames in New York, and DutchCulture in the Netherlands. The tours are created by Dutch Heritage World Tours, a Dutch organization founded to give greater publicity to Dutch heritage in countries outside the Netherlands. DISCOVER THE SCHENECTADY STOCKADE

Walk the streets of this residential neighborhood in one of America's oldest cities. The tour features stops along the streets of the original Stockade. Each stop tells a unique story about the diverse events, architecture and people who helped shape Schenectady's 350 year history.

● Tour starts at the corner of N Church and Front Streets

HOW DUTCH IS NEW YORK? THE SCHENECTADY STOCKADE TOUR

Though the wooden wall is long gone, today you can walk the Stockade and get a feel for what life was like in this 17th century Dutch village.

○ Tour starts at the end of Washington Ave

HOW DUTCH IS NEW YORK? THE MOHAWK VALLEY TOUR

Hear about the early beginnings of Upstate New York, and the life of local Dutch and indigenous peoples. This is a driving tour.

To access these tours, download the free izi.TRAVEL app on the App or Play Store.

Once ready, search izi.TRAVEL for the Schenectady tours and follow instructions to start. At start, each activates recorded narrative and images as you proceed with a guided walk. The map to the right gives each tour's starting location.
